SETTLERS INVITED

Attentions for Home Speakers in the Region to the Northward.

The great majority of the people in the Eastern and Middle States are apparently under the impression that there is absolutely no opportunity for investors, home seekers, or health seekers east of the Summit of the Sierra Nevada Mountains, while the eastern slope of the Sierras has lain unmolested for ages with its mineral, timber and agricultural resources equal if not superior to those on the western slope.

While the climate is not so mild as that of the coast counties it is exceedingly bracing and invigorating to those who are benefited by enervating influences of the semi-tropical climate to be found to the southward.

This seems to be the proper occasion on which the people of eastern California and Nevada should join in proclaiming to the world, "Now is the acceptable time; I say unto you, come."

BIG DOINGS IN ELKDOM.

Last evening the "Best People on Earth" had a season of merry fellowship in their club room. Four candidates were initiated into the order with impressive ceremonies.

The attendance was large. Besides the resident Elks there were, among others, Secretary of State Howell, Treasurer Ryan and H. P. Epstein of Carson, Superintendent Ryan and W. E. Eckley of Virginia and C. D.
San Duzer of Winnemucca.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies here was a huge feed, followed by out-prandial addresses.

A HOUSE WARMING.

Next Tuesday evening the carpenters and masons, who constructed the new car shops for the Nevada-California-Oregon railroad, will give a house warming. Last evening they worked extra time free gratis in order to be sure that the place would be in readiness for the event to be pulled off on schedule time.

The officers of the road will be presented a drowsybody else. Look out for a good time. Floor Manager Dodd insures the Journal that the best of music will be provided and that the best of people will be there.

LIVELY UP NORTH.

Wm. Lemmon is in from Long Valley. He reports things booming.
Fourteen teams are engaged in hauling wood to Purdy Switch. Great activity in lumbering enterprises and railroad building in the vicinity of Loyalton and the development of a number of mining claims in that section all help to relieve the monotony of farm life.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Palace Dry Goods House has on sale colored and corded batiste in a large variety of designs at 12 1/2 cents per yard. They offer also trimmed white waists from 75 cents up and trimmed crash skirts from 75 cents up.
Some of these goods can be seen displayed in the show windows.

A LIVELY VILLAGE.

Contractor Schadler came down from Floriston last evening and will return tomorrow. He is working a force of over twenty carpenters there constructing dwelling houses and other buildings for the Paper Company. The little up river town is growing rapidly.

HOME FOR SUNDAY.

C. P. Cross, M. J. Curtis, P. Delon-chant and Peter Burke came down from Verdi last evening to spend Sunday at home. They report that the first floor of the Verdi band mill was raised yesterday. Construction work on the mill and railway are proceeding rapidly.
